Mayor Stephanie Rawlings-Blake's Youth B'More Summer Block Party Tour is making three more stops in the month of August.

Baltimore, MD. (Aug 15, 2013) Mayor Stephanie Rawlings-Blake and the Baltimore City Youth Commission has been host of the Youth B'More Summer Block Party Tour since June 18th, 2013. The tour continues with three more stops this month; August 15th, 3400 Elmley street in the Edison Community, August 20th 1311 N Gilmore street and August 27th, 605 Willow avenue. These events support the mayor's initiative to promote "Better Schools Safer Streets and Stronger Neighborhoods."

"The city's Youth B'More Summer Block Party series is a fun and positive program." said Mayor Rawlings-Blake. "It's important that the city's youth get the support they need throughout the summer months."

The Youth B'More Summer Block Parties series is in its 6th year and has seen record-breaking attendance each year. Since its inception, the initiative has grown to reach thousands of citizens each year in communities throughout Baltimore. "Since the first year of our tour, it has always been peaceful, without any major incident. It's a great time and something positive for the communities of our city, and we are bringing useful resources to empower those who participate", say Youth and Education Specialist/Southern and Southeastern Liaison, Linzy Jackson III.

The block parties give residents access to health screenings, employment information, and school enrollment opportunities. Participating city agencies include the Baltimore Health Department, Baltimore City School System, and the Mayor's Office of Employment Development. These events will feature live performances from the area's top musical artists, including 92Q's DJ Angel Baby with the Get Pumped Movement, Shadina, Alex J, Markus Vonnell and many more, hosted by the infamous Mr. Baltimore. The event is supported and sponsored by Downtown Locker Room, Task Force Marketing, DC Nadia Group, The Baltimore City Youth Commission.

The Baltimore City Youth Commission works to create better schools, safer streets, and stronger neighborhoods by planning and promoting safe, productive activities for children, youth, and families in Baltimore's communities.
